Junior Graphic Designer

About the Job

The Loisaida Inc. Center is looking for a Junior graphic designer to join our lead developer and assist with creating graphic design assets for our various programs. The Junior Graphic Designer will work closely with Loisaida Inc. Center's Creative Technologist to design a secure, visually appealing and concise digital space that is easy to navigate for our target audience.

As the Graphic Designer at Loisaida Inc. Center, you will be responsible for designing and deploying our official website and its content. Your role will directly impact how our brand is perceived by our target audiences and will help generate traffic and drive demand.

The ideal candidate for this position will have a strong sense of design to create engaging content.. This position requires someone that is always thinking of your audience and how they will engage with your messaging and designs .

Who are we

Loisaida, Inc. stands firm on its original mission—Address the serious economic and social disenfranchisement of poor and low income Latino residents, with employment and training opportunities, comprehensive youth development initiatives, as well as neighborhood revitalization activities that positively highlight the rich culture, heritage, and contribution of the Puerto Rican and Latin American community in this City—while offering programming that meets the demands of the times and the neighborhood's changing demographic. In its new home at 710 East 9th Street, Loisaida builds a connection between community, learners, artists and scholars through affordable education opportunities in cultural fields, S.T.E.A.M. (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics) design and everyday life. Our approach celebrates the urban surroundings, grassroots invention and immigrant spirit of the Loisaida neighborhood in its dedication to celebrate Latino cultural vitality and their contributions to NYC.
